Mission Statement

The mission of the University of Miami Intensive English Program is to prepare international students to enter a university in the U.S. by providing instruction in English language and academic study skills. The IEP also helps its international students adapt to university life and American culture. The program facilitates intercultural understanding, offers support and guidance related to non-academic issues, and builds ease and confidence in a new culture. The Intensive English Program serves the University of Miami by recruiting students and preparing them for academic study and by providing language support services to the university community.

Length of Program and Level Placement

Placement

- On the first day of the session, new students will take a placement test to determine their level.
- The placement test includes listening, reading, writing and an oral interview.
- Depending on the results of your exam, it is possible that you place into two levels. The levels must be consecutive, for example, level 3 Oral Communication and level 4 Reading and Writing.
- During the first week of class, teachers will assess abilities in all skills. For new students only, if a high enough score is achieved in those assessments, it is possible to move up one level in some or all courses.

Length of Program

- The IEP offers a total of 5 levels.
- Students complete one level per session.
- A student’s length of study in the IEP will depend upon which level he or she enters the program; however, a student that begins in level 1 and progresses through the 5 levels without repeating a level will finish in 5 sessions, or in approximately a year and a half.
IEP Course Description

Level 1
In Level 1, teaching focuses on fundamental English skills. Students will be introduced to the basic skills of reading, writing, listening and speaking. Grammar points covered include present, future and present progressive verb tenses, introduction to parts of speech, articles, modals used in functional situations, question formation and preposition

Level
In Level 2, the focus is on interpersonal communication skills in an informal setting. Students will develop their reading skills to improve comprehension while building their vocabulary. They will write paragraphs incorporating grammatical concepts taught in class. Grammar points covered review those of Level 1 as well as past and past progressive tenses, broader use of modals, adjectives and conjunctions.

Level 3
In Level 3, the focus is on interpersonal communication and academic skills. Students will read more complex selections and write simple essays. They will be introduced to connection between reading and writing. Students will practice taking part in more in-depth, yet controlled, conversations. Grammatical structures taught include future progressive, present perfect progressive tenses, prepositions, and comparatives.

Level 4
In Level 4, the focus is to improve communication skills in general as well as to prepare students for academic classes. Reading and writing classes are now integrated. Students will be exposed to a variety of authentic reading and listening materials. Students will be better prepared to participate in a variety of conversations and other speaking/listening tasks. Grammatical structures taught include a review of those covered in Level 3 as well as gerunds and infinitives, clauses (adjectives, adverb and noun), articles, prepositions and subordinating conjunctions.

Level 5
In Level 5, the focus of the course is academic, and students will refine their speaking/listening skills and their reading/writing skills to enable them to communicate at a complex and in-depth level in the university setting. The overall goal is to prepare students to handle a regular academic course load. Grammatical structures include a review of material previously covered as well as past and future perfect and modal perfects.

University of Miami
Intensive English Program
Grading and Proficiency Scale

Revised 9/14/12
Classroom Policies

Attendance Policy

- Class attendance is required by both the Intensive English Program of the University of Miami and the Department of Homeland Security. Attendance is counted starting on the first day of class. You are expected to attend every class. Attendance will be taken daily.
- You must e-mail your instructors when you are absent, regardless of the reason. In case of an emergency, you should contact the Associate Director as soon as possible.
- You must attend a minimum of 85% of all classes, including Workshop and Special Topics classes. You may not miss more than 15% of all classes.

Punctuality

- You must come to class on time. "On time" means that you are seated and ready to start class at the time that the instructor begins to teach.
- Each time you come to class more than 10 minutes late, you will be marked with .5 of an absence. Therefore, coming to class more than 10 minutes late two times will count as one absence from class.

Religious Holiday Policy

- The Intensive English Program is happy to accommodate those students who wish to observe religious holy day. Students who plan to observe religious holy days must inform their instructors of the dates they will be absent within the first two weeks of the session start date.
- Please note that any class missed due to religious holy day observances are counted as an absence.

Excessive Absences

- Please note that missing classes may put you in danger of not passing a class. It is important to be aware of instructor make-up work policies to understand how missing class affects your class grade.
- If you are consistently and repeatedly absent during the course of a session, we will try to contact you. If you do not respond and return to class, you may be withdrawn from classes.
- For students in F-1 student status, being withdrawn from class because of excessive absences will result in a SEVIS termination and loss of your F-1 student status in the United States.

Classroom Etiquette

- Always be on time for class.
- Be attentive in class.
- Participate in class discussion, ask questions and take notes.
- Be respectful.
- Private conversations, cell phones, laptops and other items not related to class are inappropriate.
- Be prepared for class.
- Read the assigned material.
- Do your homework.
- Cell phones and other electronic devices should be silenced and used only if needed for class activities with permission from your teacher.

Make-up Work Policy

- For work that can be made up, you must have one week from the due date of an assignment to complete it.
- Students must check with each teacher to determine what work can be made up.
- It is important to be aware of instructor make-up work policies.
Certificates

- Certificates of completion are issued at the end of each semester listing the course(s) a student has passed.
- In order to receive a certificate, the student must earn a grade of C- (70%) or better in one or more of his/her classes and have successfully completed one of the five levels of the IEP.
- Certificates are not awarded to those students with outstanding financial obligations to the University or who have not successfully completed a level.
- In order to receive Honors you must receive a grade of “A” (90%+) in all classes, including Special Topic classes.

Transcripts

- All IEP grades appear on a student’s official University of Miami undergraduate transcript. To order a transcript, please visit canelink.miami.edu.

Failing a Class and Academic Probation

- The Intensive English Program has 12-week probation.
- Students who initially earn a final grade below a 70% (C-) in one or more classes must repeat the class(es) the following semester.
- The student will meet with the IEP Director to discuss academic progress and sign an academic probation agreement.
- If a student again earns a failing grade of less than 70% in a class they previously failed and are repeating, the student will not be permitted to re-enroll at the Intensive English Program.
- Students who return to the IEP on academic probation and who also failed to meet the attendance requirement of 85% in the previous semester will be closely monitored by the IEP Director. Any student who earns a grade below a 70% (C-) in a class they failed the previous semester will be dismissed from the IEP at the end of the semester.
- Conditionally admitted students who are dismissed from the IEP will need to reapply to the University of Miami once they have completed their English requirement elsewhere and completed 30 college-level credits.

Final Grade Appeal Procedure

- If a student feels that a final grade does not accurately reflect his/her achieved competency, the steps outlined below must be followed. Please note that the student must submit the Grade Appeal Form no later than one week after the date of the certificate ceremony. A student may not start his/her classes the following semester until the appeal is reviewed and resolved.
- Discuss the grade with the instructor no later than three days after the date of the previous semester’s certificate ceremony. In most cases, the discussion between the student and the instructor is enough and there will be no need to discuss it further.
- If, after talking with the instructor, the student is still not satisfied, he/she should fill out the Final Grade Appeal Form.
- Submit the Final Grade Appeal Form to the IEP Director no later than one week after the date of the previous semester’s certificate ceremony.
- The Grades Appeal Committee will review the request. The student will be contacted by email if more information is necessary.
- Once a decision has been made, the student will be contacted to come meet with the IEP Director and the Executive Director.

Permission to Repeat a Class

- If you wish to repeat a level, you must make a request to IEP Director prior to re-registering for the next semester. Your request to repeat a level may be denied if your overall attendance in the current semester is less than the required 85%.
- When repeating a class, you are required to:
  - Attend a minimum of 85% of classes.
  - Arrive on time to class.
  - Participate in all classes.
  - Complete the work that is assigned. Please note that you may not resubmit work done during the prior semester.
TOEFL and Other Exams

For Undergraduate Admission Purposes

- The Institutional TOEFL, also known as the PBT, will be given one time only during the fall and spring semesters.
- No official score report will be given, and scores may only be used at the University of Miami.
- This is generally the only exam which students with undergraduate conditional admission may take to fulfill their English requirement.
- Students with conditional admission to the University of Miami will be permitted to register for the exam first, and others will be permitted to register as space allows.

For Graduate Admission and Other Purposes

- Students who must take the International TOEFL (iBT), either for graduate admission at UM or for other purposes, may register for the exam online at www.toefl.org.
- The exam is typically given a few times each month at various testing locations in South Florida.
- Students who take the iBT must request that official score reports be sent from ETS to the colleges or universities of their choice.
- The University of Miami TOEFL code number is C730.
- For questions about graduate TOEFL requirements at UM, please contact the appropriate graduate program.

Undergraduate Admission Requirements

- For questions about undergraduate TOEFL requirements at UM, please visit the Office of Admission.
- Undergraduate applicants should note the following:
  - IEP students are expected to pass their current IEP classes regardless of their TOEFL score.
    The University of Miami may rescind final admission from any student who does not pass his/her current IEP classes.
- The IELTS is also given locally. Please visit www.ielts.org for more information.

Student Activities

The Intensive English Program provides many on-campus and off-campus activities throughout the semester. The activities are provided to help students learn about the University, Miami, and each other and to have fun while practicing English outside the classroom!

How can I learn about activities?

- Classroom announcements
- Weekly e-mail
- Activity calendar on the bulletin board

How can I participate?

- Complete the "Trip Release Form" during the registration and re-registration process
- Sign up by the deadline of the activity you wish to attend

What if I sign up and pay but I am unable to attend?

Once you sign up for an activity, we are counting on your attendance. Unfortunately, refunds are not possible. A friend may be able to go in your place, but this requires approval at least one day in advance.

Can I go by myself or meet you at the event?

Part of the magic of the activities is going as a group and sharing the experience with your fellow students. Therefore, participating in the entire activity is highly encouraged.

Can I leave an activity early?

Yes, students may take their own transportation to and from events. There are a few exceptions that will be communicated in advance of the activity.

Since we are part of a larger University, we are governed by strict policies relating to risk and insurance. Therefore, we have a number of rules and behavioral guidelines that must be followed.

Health Insurance

Healthcare in the United States is very expensive. Treatment for even very simple injuries or illnesses can cost thousands of dollars in a hospital emergency room. The University of Miami, therefore, requires that all students have comprehensive medical insurance. A health insurance fee is included in your mandatory tuition and fees which you will pay during the first week of class. To keep your healthcare costs to a minimum, we recommend that you use the University’s on-campus Student Health Services, located at 5555 Ponce de Leon Blvd.

All students are required to enroll in the University-sponsored health insurance program. The student health insurance fee charged each session covers medical, surgical, and hospital insurance for major illnesses, accidents, surgery, psychiatric emergencies, and for off-campus emergency room care. It does not include dental insurance. Additional information on the policy benefits, exclusions and limitations is available at www.miami.edu/student-health. Please carefully read the insurance brochure and direct any inquiries to studenthealth@miami.edu or (305) 284-9100.

Your student insurance is accepted at most hospitals and provides coverage worldwide if you become seriously ill or accidentally injured. Care should be coordinated through Student Health Services whenever possible. Health insurance coverage is best at UM facilities, so if you need to go to the hospital, we recommend UM Hospital, located at 1400 NW 12th Avenue, Miami, (305) 325-5511. Please see uhealthsystem.com for more information. Referrals should be obtained through Student Health Services. There is a deductible for hospital and private physicians. Insurance coverage is only for the period you are enrolled in the Intensive English Program. Once you have completed your IEP studies, your health insurance will terminate. Students who have insurance through their government sponsor must waive their health insurance with the Student Health Services each semester.
Personal Safety

The University of Miami's on-campus Police Department offers a variety of services & programs to ensure your safety on and off campus.

Safety Escorts

A UM Police employee or security officer will make sure you are free to walk the campus safely any time and on any day, holidays and school breaks included. One of these professionals will meet you and walk with or transport you safely to your destination. All escort providers carry a police-issued radio and are in constant contact with UMPD.

Blue Light Emergency Phones

The Coral Gables campus has over 100 Blue Light phones. These may be stand-alone pole mounted, fastened to the outside of buildings or on each floor of our parking garages. Simply look for the blue light and you'll find the phone box nearby. To use the Blue Light Phone, press the button and a UM Police dispatcher will answer.

U Guardian

U-Guardian is a free smartphone safety app which UM students, faculty, and staff can download on their IOS or Android devices.

This app allows the user to pre-register emergency information, utilize virtual trip safety escort, and a one touch call button to UMPD.
